

Code of Conduct (COC) Policy

SK Connect – Youth Volunteers & Participants

1. Purpose

This Code of Conduct sets clear expectations for all SK Connect officers, youth volunteers, and participants. Its goal is to promote a safe, respectful, and inclusive environment during all programs, events, trainings, and online activities related to SK Connect.

2. Scope

This policy applies to everyone involved in SK Connect activities, whether on-site or online, including but not limited to: officers, volunteers, barangay partners, vendors, and guests.

3. Core Values

All actions must reflect the following values:

- Integrity – We act honestly and follow rules and agreements.
- Respect – We treat all persons with dignity regardless of gender, religion, status, or opinion.
- Responsibility – We are accountable for our words, actions, and assigned tasks.
- Safety – We prioritize the physical, emotional, and digital safety of everyone.

4. Expected Behaviour

All members are expected to:

- Follow lawful instructions from authorized SK officials and event leads.
- Arrive on time, attend required orientations, and complete assigned duties.
- Use language that is polite and non-discriminatory.
- Respect property, event materials, and facilities.
- Wear proper identification and follow dress code when required.
- Maintain confidentiality of personal and sensitive information collected during activities.

5. Prohibited Conduct

The following behaviours are strictly prohibited:

- Harassment, bullying, or discrimination of any kind.
- Physical or verbal abuse, threats, or intimidation.
- Sexual harassment, unwanted advances, or lewd comments.
- Possession or use of alcohol, illegal drugs, or deadly weapons during SK Connect activities.
- Vandalism, theft, or deliberate damage to property.
- Spreading false information or confidential data without consent.
- Any action that endangers the safety or reputation of SK Connect or its partners.

6. Online & Social Media Conduct

When posting online in relation to SK Connect, members must:

- Use official channels for announcements and information.
- Avoid sharing sensitive data (e.g., addresses, contact numbers, school IDs) without consent.
- Refrain from posting content that is discriminatory, obscene, or incites violence.
- Clarify when expressing personal opinions that they do not officially represent SK Connect.

7. Reporting Concerns or Violations

Any person who experiences, witnesses, or becomes aware of behaviour that may violate this Code should report it as soon as possible to:

- The Event Lead or Safety Officer on duty; or
- The SK Chairperson or designated COC Focal Person.

Reports may be made verbally or through an incident report form. SK Connect will treat reports with respect and, as far as possible, confidentiality.

Code of Conduct (COC) Policy

SK Connect – Youth Volunteers & Participants

8. Investigation & Possible Actions

Reported incidents will be reviewed fairly and promptly. Depending on the severity of the violation, actions may include but are not limited to:

- Verbal or written warning;
- Removal from the activity or event;
- Suspension or removal from volunteer or leadership roles;
- Referral to barangay officials or appropriate authorities when necessary.

9. Protection from Retaliation

No one shall be punished or disadvantaged for filing a report in good faith or for participating in an investigation. Retaliation itself is a violation of this Code of Conduct.

10. Acknowledgment

All officers, volunteers, and participants may be asked to sign a separate acknowledgment form confirming that they have read, understood, and agreed to follow this Code of Conduct.

11. Effectivity

This Code of Conduct takes effect upon approval of the SK Connect leadership and remains in force until superseded or amended.